

HOW TO NOMINATE – GUIDELINES UNESCO KING HAMAD BIN ISA AL-KHALIFA PRIZE FOR THE USE OF INFORMATION AND COMMUNICATION TECHNOLOGIES IN EDUCATION

Presentation of candidatures and submission of nominations

Candidatures must be presented by the government of a Member State of UNESCO or an international non-governmental organization, maintaining formal consultative relations with UNESCO and active in the relevant fields covered by the Prize. Each government or international non-governmental organization is entitled to nominate only three candidates per year. Self-nominations cannot be considered.

Eligibility criteria

The Prize shall be awarded to individuals, institutions, other entities or non-governmental organizations in recognition for projects/activities demonstrating effective and innovative use of ICTs, which:

- † have a multiplier effect at local, national or regional level by reaching the greatest possible number of learners and raising the quality of teaching and learning;
- † result in the development of original teaching and learning materials/products which promote a learner-centred pedagogy and encourage collaboration and networking in an open and flexible environment;
- † mainstream the use of technologies in education and their seamless integration into the curriculum at all levels and across disciplines;
- † promote the development, adaptation, dissemination and reuse of open educational resources;
- † encourage research and development to facilitate accessibility of technologies for all, including marginalized, disadvantaged and vulnerable people;
- † address major digital and gender divide issues at local, national or regional level.
